Response

The MATCP Annual Conference attracts over 900 - 1,000 attendees each year. This premier event convenes Michigan Treatment Court team members as well as leaders in the fields of trauma, substance use, mental health, child welfare, law enforcement, policy makers, and legislators.

The MATCP Annual Conference strives, first and foremost, to educate. We recognize and learn from the strength and expertise of our community, renew our mission, and chart the course for the future.

Format

Each MATCP conference breakout session is 90 minutes long.

Topics

Breakout sessions are intended for a specific audience or to address a specific topic.

Most desired topics include:

- Topics specific to Juvenile Drug and Mental Health Courts.
- Topics specific to Veterans.
- Topics of interest to our Tribal Healing-to-Wellness Courts.
- Sustainability of Treatment Court Programs
- Drug & Alcohol Testing
- Graduate Transition - services and skills to promote continued success.
- Secondary Trauma & Burnout for team members and other professionals working in the field.
- Working with those with cognitive delays or executive functioning difficulties.
- Issues unique to our BIPOC participants.
- Best Practices

Open

MATCP Compensation Policy

MATCP does not provide compensation, or travel associated reimbursement to breakout presenters.

The proposal form must be completed in its entirety.

Deadline to submit a proposal is: Monday, September 2, 2024

Submission

Proposals must be submitted through the following link
Proposal Portal | MATCP Annual Conference

Upon submission, you agree that your bio, headshot, breakout title and description may be used by MATCP for conference related promotion.

Review

Upon submission, you acknowledge you have read and agree to the MATCP Annual Conference Workshop Speaker Compensation Policy listed above.

Response

Have questions? Proposal questions may be submitted to Nichole at conference@matcp.org.

All submissions received by the September 2nd deadline will be reviewed by the MATCP Conference committee.

If you have a desired time for your breakout, please make sure to answer that question on the submission form.

Please note, the MATCP will make every effort to schedule your preferred time. However, MATCP does reserve the right to schedule breakouts in a way that best fits the conference agenda.

Accepted and rejected submissions will be notified via email no later than October 28, 2024.

If accepted, your breakout title, description, speaker bio, and headshot will be printed in conference materials and/or promotion exactly as it appears on the submission. MATCP is not responsible for author errors. Your breakout date and time will be communicated at this time.
